

MAX LUCADO

Summer of Purpose & Promise
Reflection Guide

Hello Friends!

Thank you for joining us for the Max Lucado Summer Reading Plan! Ecclesiastes describes summer as a harvest time when crops are gathered, and the world is filled with abundance. This summer, I want the same thing for you to discover your purpose and God's promises.

Whether you are using this reflection guide with all three suggested titles or just one, we hope you experience some rich connection time with the Savior. Each book will take you on a journey toward finding or affirming your God-given purpose. By the end of the summer, we pray you can say God's promises offered encouragement, provided guidance, instilled hope, served as a foundation of faith, and deepened your relationship with him.

REFLECTION QUESTIONS

These questions are designed to coordinate with any of the featured titles: Unshakable Hope, Traveling Light, or You Were Made for This Moment. They are meant to be a starting point, as you pray and reflect on more topics and insights that inspired you during your reading.

1. As you read about God's promises in the book(s), what specific promises resonated with you most, and why?

2. Throughout your reading, did you feel God opening your eyes to a specific direction or destiny for your life? If so, was it surprising, intriguing, or challenging?

3. Has reading about God's promises and exploring your divine purpose inspired you to take specific steps or pursue new opportunities? What practical actions can you take to live out your purpose more intentionally?

4. Are there any promises in the book that challenge your current perspective or stretch your faith? Has your thinking changed, and if so, in what ways?

5. How can you share with others the knowledge and insight you've gained from this book? How can you encourage others to embrace the promises of God and discover their own God-given purpose?

MY SUMMER OF PURPOSE & PROMISE

This space is for you to write your purpose, open your heart, and let the words that God has spoken over you flow onto the page. Imagine a life lived in alignment with God's calling and express those thoughts on this journal page. Ask God to help you release any doubts or fears that hold you back, and step into the realm of possibility and trust in this summer harvest of spiritual enrichment.

Take a moment to pause, silence the world's noise, and listen intently to God's gentle voice.
